Notes for Green (Nancy Sneed) Hill:

General Notes:

This Green Hill family is enumerated in the 1830 census of Davidson County but has left Davidson County before the 1840 census, presumably moved to Iowa where they show up in census records there.

The witness to the marriage of Green Hill and Nancy Sneed in Wake County was Sion (spelled Sihon) Hill. This marriage in December 1819 was just several months after Tilathy Hill married John McDowell in October 1819. (See attached)

In 1860, Iowa census, Green Hill is living with his new wife Louisa who was born in Iowa. He married her in 1859, two months after Nancy Sneed Hill died. Green Hill had a second family with Louisa.

In 1880, this Green Hill is still alive in Scott, Johnson, Iowa and states that both his father and mother (Sion Hill and Starage Lee) were born in North Carolina. This is important in finding out who the parents of Sion and Starage are.

Nancy Sneed is the daughter of Robert Sharpe Sneed and Tabitha. She was born Abt. 1795 in Johnston County, NC, USA. She died on 01 Oct 1859 in Scott Township, Johnson County, Iowa.

Notes for Josiah C Hill:

General Notes:

In the 1860 census, Josiah Hill is living in Texas but he says he was born in Missouri. Obviously, this is incorrect as he was the first child of Green Hill and Nancy Sneed born around 1819.

Checking names and ages of children confirms this is Josiah of Green Hill.

There are records in Texas of a Josiah Hill serving in the confederacy. There are no records that he was killed in service. However, in the 1870 census of Burleson County, Texas, Green L Hill age 66 born in North Carolina (this may be Green Hill of Sion born in 1801 in Johnston County, NC). There are several children listed that match a little to those of Josiah and Louisa Hill from the 1850 census. Green Hill is not in the Iowa census in 1870, so this may be him. It appears that Josiah Hill is deceased before 1870.
